

Lyndonville

Lyndonville Beat Agricultural School at Football—New Pumping Station in Working Order.

(Mrs. E. J. Blodgett, Correspondent.) A very exciting game of football took place on the campus Saturday between the Lyndonville and Agricultural school teams. The score was 12 to 0 in favor of the former team. Several minor injuries are reported, the worst being Hugh Kirkland's broken nose from which, however, it is thought he will recover without great trouble.

The new pumping station to be used in connection with the village water system is completed and tested Saturday, giving excellent satisfaction. The station is located in a small building directly back of Henry Graves' house and has a 50 horse power electric motor which runs the pump and throws the water from the Copeland reservoir a good distance. It is designed to pump water by this means through the mains into the village reservoir in case of drought or shortage, and thus to supply every house in town no matter how high it is located.

Miss Florence Cushman of Orfordville, N. H., a former student, is spending a few days with Miss Ruth Chapman at the Center.

Mrs. J. M. Spencer is holding a sale of fancy articles, drawn work and embroidery, which she has made during the summer at her home, this week.

Kingsley Mitchell is going to Springfield to work in an ammunition factory this winter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, who will be remembered here, where she lived for some time with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Swail, has recently died in Sackatoon, Sask., where the Swails moved about two years ago. She was in her 80th year, and has been an invalid for some time.

W. H. Bean has rented his farm for a time to Alfred Quimby and wife and will go to California to visit the expositions and stop with his brother in Los Angeles. During his absence his family will occupy a tenement in the Marston house near the school house.

Mrs. John Chase and Mrs. John Tittcomb went to Bethel last week to attend the mid-year meeting of the Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs.

George Nichols bought a small place in the town of Sutton, near West Burke village and moved there from Egypt. He will continue to run the creamery team.

N. D. Martin has moved into the Charles Blake house on Charles street, and Ernest Martin, who has been living there has taken rooms in the Ide block.

Miss Elsie Calkins, a student at Lyndon Institute, is at her home in West Charleston, recovering from an operation for appendicitis recently undergone at Brightlook hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lyon and daughter made a trip to West Charleston last week to call on his uncle, A. W. Lyon and wife.

That the annual "Community Supper" of the Village Improvement society has proved its right to continuance was amply shown last Friday evening by the large and enthusiastic crowd of 300 that gathered at the second evening of this kind. Mrs. G. M. Campbell and Mrs. O. M. Darling were in charge of the supper and the entertainment committee with all their corps of able assistants. The same committee as last year had charge of the entertainment, assisted in the direction of the children by Mrs. G. M. Ferguson and Mrs. William Lyon. The supper all witnessed the Vision of Fair Women, a series of tableaux with songs and recitations interspersed. During the progress of the scenes Miss Irene Stimson played softly on the piano in the wings. Mrs. Archie Leonard as the Dreamer, speaks and sees the various characters in costume as they come upon the stage, gave appropriate speeches and form in groups. The costumes were very attractive and appropriate, and with two exceptions were designed and made by home talent. The following were the characters and their impersonating them: Mother Goose, Marion Gorman; Little Bo-Peep, Elizabeth Lyon; Red Riding Hood, Ruth Folsom; May Queen, Bernice Fisher; Maid of Honor, Sibyl Barber; Attendants, Alma and Ruth Melghan; Hortense Bemis, Anna Dahl; Eva Wood, Wilma; Maud; Maud Wetherbee; Day, Mrs. Georgia Brooks; Gipsy Queen, Mrs. Grover Foster; Queen Elizabeth, Mrs. Lucius Darling; Mary, Queen of Scots, Thelma Burbank; Cleopatra, Editha Drew; Minnehaha, Mabel Durgan; Pocahontas, Rebecca, Mrs. Lem Curcio; Joan of Arc, Mrs. Henry Wilkie; Portia, Bess Hutchinson; Lady Macbeth, Miriam Rhodes; Grace Darling, Mrs. Sam Mitchell; Evangeline, Miss Bowles; White Malone, Pearl Wilmet; Highland Mary, Mrs. L. T. Huntley; Maud Muller, Mrs. G. F. Rousseau; Lady Clare, Carolyn Darling; Samantha Allen, Euphemia Fraser; Dame Fashion, Isabelle Stern; Jephthah's Daughter, Gladys Hunter; Queen Zenobia, Mrs. C. M. Page; Suffragette, Mrs. John Lincoln; Anti-Suffragette, Mrs. A. T. Christopher; Tranquility, Edith Gray; Mrs. Huntley, Mrs. Mitchell and Beth Lyon sang. Miss Gladys Hunter danced and the others spoke selections appropriate to their characters. Several beautiful tableaux were made of the grouped characters by the changing lights. At the close of the entertainment a short program of dances was given, music being furnished by Mrs. Henry Brown at the piano and Harley Johnson with the traps and drum.

Miss Beas Hutchinson spent Sunday with friends at Derby Line.

Mrs. Clara Smith of Littleton, N. H. is spending the week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Josephine Wilder, during the absence of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Parker, in New York city.

Mrs. A. D. Paige spent a few days with Mr. Paige in Greenfield, Mass. last week.

Mrs. Flora Griswold of St. Johnsbury East visited her son, Russell Griswold over Sunday. The Griswolds and Burpees took an automobile trip to Willoughby Lake and Orleans Sunday.

The ladies of the Universalist church held their annual fall supper and sale in the G. A. R. hall Saturday afternoon and evening of this week.

Mrs. A. N. Drew of St. Johnsbury was a visitor in town last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin visited Mrs. Gilman in Sutton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drown of East Burke visited their daughter, Mrs. John Stafford, last week.

Archibald Simpson had as a guest last week, his sister, Mrs. Fred Lund of East Burke.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Jay S. Butler Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Welch have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Henry Dexter, at Lowell, Mass.

J. C. Eaton is at home from Indianapolis, where he has been spending a few months with his daughter, Mrs. A. D. Brewer.

A number of the members of the Community League were invited to Randolph last week Monday to attend a meeting of the Christian Brotherhood, which was held at the home of Mrs. Metger in the pastor, Charles M. Darling kindly invited the party to go in his car, and those who went were Mr. Darling and his son, E. A. Cook, Homer Wilson, H. A. Squires, A. W. Edmunds and Dr. H. M. Smith. The speaker at the meeting was Captain Reeves, the president of Norwich University. Supper was served, this being the regular fortnightly meeting of the Brotherhood. The visitors enjoyed the meeting and their entertainment very much. They stopped at Northfield and at Barre on their way.

Mrs. Charles Thompson and her niece, Miss Hazel Cummings, visited friends in East Burke last week.

Rev. James J. Hutchinson went to East Burke last Thursday evening to speak at the 21st anniversary of the Christian Endeavor Society.

A large number from here attended the chicken pie supper held at the Baptist church in Lyndon Center last week, Tuesday evening. Chicken pie suppers Thursday evening at West Burke, Lyndon and East Lyndon also were held.

Dumont Baldwin spent Sunday of last week at his home in Wells River.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cable were guests of friends in East Concord last week.

Judge Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Farwell and daughter Alice from Wells River were recent visitors in town.

Mrs. H. L. Parker went to New York Monday night to meet Mr. Parker on his return from Mount Clemens, Mich. They will spend a few days in their city during their holiday goods.

Marton Weeks of East Barre was a visitor in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Vigneault and child visited recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harris, in Passumpsic.

Mrs. Clayton Libbey visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Powers, at East Ryegate a few days last week.

Mr. Ransom and daughter were recent visitors of friends in Monroe, N. H.

George P. Smith will probably go to Newport to live with his daughter, Mrs. F. W. Thompson, since his home was broken up by the death of his wife.

A delegation from Crescent Lodge of Masons accompanied Dr. H. M. Smith when he goes to West Burke this evening to inspect the lodge there.

Mrs. E. A. Gaudette has been entertaining as guests her brother, James Longway with his wife and child.

The wives of the faculty of the Valley Agricultural school gave their annual reception in the institute chapel last Saturday evening, the students and employees being their guests. In the receiving line were Mrs. A. R. Merrill, Mrs. H. A. Dodge, Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. Olney, Mrs. Dresser and Mrs. Whitney.

The entertainment was an indoor track meet with many funny stunts. Music was enjoyed and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

M. G. Calderwood of Massachusetts, the manager of the recent prohibition campaign, spoke in the Methodist church last week, Sunday morning, in the interests of the prohibition movement. In view of the coming referendum on the subject in this state, it was thought best to arouse interest in the subject and organize under the leadership of P. L. White all interested in temperance were invited to meet in Cable hall Friday evening, or organize and talk over means and methods of combining against the liquor traffic.

Mr. Roanoy Parker of East Burke has been spending a few days with Mrs. Theodore Parker and her daughter.

Miss Ida Batchelder, who is still at Brightlook hospital, continues to improve and hopes to be able to return to her school for the winter term.

Mrs. Fanny Sargent of West Burke has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Frank W. Silsby.

E. A. Darling gave a very delightful luncheon party at Burklyn hall Thursday for eight ladies of this place.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Ide leave Saturday for Springfield where they will remain over Sunday, going from there Monday on a trip of several weeks to California. They go from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs and Salt Lake City, will visit both expositions, Los Angeles and other places of interest, and return by Grand Canyon and the southern route to New Orleans.

George Cree visited his father, S. G. Cree, in Wheelock a few days last week.

Mrs. Agnes McGovern spent a few days recently with her brother, Chas. A. McGovern, in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Point of Laconia, N. H., made a visit to town last week.

The annual meeting of the Driving club was held Friday evening, Nov. 12, at Charles M. Darling's office.

Meetings of the various circles of the Lyndon Union club are planned for this month as given below. All club members are welcomed at these meetings and all are urged to join and take part in the work of one or more of them.

The committee held a meeting Saturday, Nov. 13, at Mathewson house, when Miss Colton gave the ladies a lesson in flower making and Miss Packard one in tea serving. The music circle will meet with Mrs. O. E. Mathewson Thursday, Nov. 18, to study the opera "Rigoletto." The teachers at Mathewson house entertained the Mothers' circle Saturday evening, Nov. 13. Mrs. A. R. Merrill had the leading paper on "The Child and Punishment" and Mrs. Chas. M. Darling on "Bright Sayings of My Children." The Current Events class meets with Mrs. E. J. Blodgett Thursday, Nov. 18, at 2:30 p. m. The Girls' Industrial class met in the G. A. R. hall Saturday evening, Nov. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wohlleben of Mountain Lakes, N. J., announce the marriage of their daughter Carolyn Louise to Lewis D. Silsby of Mountain Lakes, formerly of Lyndonville.

EAST HARDWICK

(Fleida V. Hassam, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jennings are in Massachusetts for a few weeks.

Rev. J. P. Marvin and son Fay of Worcester, Mass., are visiting friends in town.

Gladys Hassam was home from Barre over Sunday.

Rev. J. P. Marvin gave an address to the boys Sunday evening at the union meeting at the Baptist church.

Eldredge and Son have sold their grist mill to Mr. S. B. and back, and Mrs. Hooker of Hardwick has moved into the house she lately bought in East Hardwick.

Mrs. Henry Hill is going to Crafts-bury to keep house for her uncle, Mr. Wood, this winter.

Mrs. Eldredge contemplates going to Florida to spend the winter with her daughter and Mrs. Will Smith is to care for her house during her absence.

WALDEN

(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.) Miss Edith Walsh has returned from her visit to friends in Manchester, N. H.

Rev. J. S. Crossland is arranging for a musical evening on Tuesday, Nov. 23 and has engaged some outside talent to assist.

Leon Scott of Cabot spent Sunday at A. A. Scott's.

District Superintendent Lowe of St. Johnsbury had charge of the service here Sunday and gave a very helpful talk to those who were privileged to hear him.

Mrs. Hale entertains the Ladies Mite society at a social on Wednesday evening.

Willis Stevens of Manchester, N. H. spent last week with friends here.

OUR JETNEY OFFER—This and so. DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 2c and mail it to Foley & Co., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills for pain in sides and back, rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels. C. C. BINGHAM.

(Mrs. E. F. Ayer, Correspondent.) The West Danville school will give a free entertainment Friday evening, Nov. 19, at 7:30 in the grammar room. Home made candy and pop corn will be on sale.

Charles Hunt and little daughter of St. Johnsbury spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Nancy Hunt, last week.

Mrs. Nancy Hunt returned home Tuesday after several weeks' stay in Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. George Smith of East Peacham visited her sister, Mrs. George Gile Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford of Bethel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Daniels.

Miss Mary Ayer spent part of last week at St. Johnsbury.

George Gile, A. J. Goss and John Brickett have gone to Walden, deer hunting.

(Intended for last week.) Miss Mary Armstrong went Monday to Barre to work.

Bert Gerry has returned and is boarding with Mrs. Eliza Waldo.

Mrs. Jane Hayes of Somerville, Mass., and Mrs. I. B. Flint of St. Johnsbury were at E. F. Ayer's Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. George Gile and Mildred spent Sunday at East Peacham.

Mrs. Marcia Perkins was home from Northfield over Sunday.

LOWER WATERFORD

(Mrs. G. A. Ballou, Correspondent.) There will be no services in the church till Dec. 5. Rev. E. E. Grant is taking his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown and son and Wilmet Kinnie spent Sunday in Barre, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoddard.

Mrs. Will Emery of Haverhill, Mass., was called here last week by the illness of her brother-in-law, Arthur Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ballou visited her brother W. G. Morrison in Barre, recently.

The school children will give a Thanksgiving entertainment in the vestry Friday evening, Nov. 19.

The Ladies Circle served their annual oyster supper in the vestry last Thursday night. There were not very many present.

A new school house is being built in E. I. Williams district.

George Blodgett has improved his house by a fresh coat of paint and new windows.

Mrs. Alden Lowe of Leominster, Mass., was called here Monday by the illness of her brother, Arthur Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Morrison and two daughters of Concord spent Sunday at his mother's, Mrs. Katherine Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Phillips and son Sam spent Sunday in Bethlehem.

WEST LUNENBURG

(Mrs. W. H. Carpenter, Correspondent.) Fred Lard of Groveton, N. H., called on his parents one day this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Carpenter and Miss Josephine Carpenter were in St. Johnsbury Friday of last week.

Gilbert Covey was in St. Johnsbury on business the first of the week.

W. H. Carpenter was in Whitefield and Littleton Monday.

Theodore Sanborn is driving the milk team this week.

Mrs. Fred Whipple of East Concord was called here recently to see her mother, Mrs. O. O. Blood, who has been quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hastings were the guests of friends in St. Johnsbury Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Stockwell of East Concord visited at Harvey Woodbury's Sunday.

Harry Newman of Whitefield, N. H. was a business visitor in the place recently.

WEST BARNET

Interesting Teachers Meeting—Miss Sarah Brock Suffers Another Injury.

(Mrs. L. H. Thornton, Correspondent.) Both sessions of the teachers meeting held in the West Barnet school house Wednesday were well attended by the Barnet and Peacham teachers.

Prin. N. W. Chaffee of the teacher training course at Peacham Academy attended with his class and spoke on "The Art of Questioning." His address was very helpful to the teachers who took notes throughout the day. Superintendent Harvey Burbank spoke on "The Organization, Management and Teaching of Schools." The teachers voted to buy 24 books on teaching.

Miss Sarah Brock, who was taken to Brightlook hospital at St. Johnsbury with a broken hip some weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to return home this week, fell last Wednesday and broke her leg.

Miss Agnes Mackay of Peacham was the guest of Miss Georgia Thornton Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Blaine and family spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

The Ladies Missionary society will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ritchie.

KIRBY

(Mrs. W. F. Russell, Correspondent.) J. E. Batchelder has sold his farm to W. W. Russell from Ayers Gift, P. Q., for $4,200. Possession is given at once. Mr. Batchelder will sell his stock, farming tools and household goods at auction Thursday, Nov. 18 and after visiting friends and relatives for a few weeks will go to Massachusetts where they intend to settle.

Miss Anna Slayton is visiting her sister, Mrs. Marjorie Nickerson.

Mrs. Sadie Lang and Miss Ida visited Miss Freda Russell at St. Johnsbury East last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Russell are visiting at W. J. Hastie's in Peacham for a few days.

Mrs. Leo Myers of Burlington was shockingly burned on Nov. 16 while arranging her hair before a mirror.

Her hair caught at the Burlington post office and a gas log set fire to the bottom of her dress which was in flames in an instant. She is in a critical condition but will probably recover.

Prin. M. C. Reynolds of People's Academy, Montpelier, has been offered a position by the State Board of Education as executive clerk in the office of the state superintendent at Montpelier.

GREENSBORO

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook Observe Golden Wedding—"Neighbors Night" at the Grange.

(Geo. A. Porter, Correspondent.) Saturday afternoon about 45 friends of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cook repaired to the Cook homestead in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. Cook. They have four children, Mrs. Anna Miller, C. B. Cook, George Cook and Mrs. Beth Allen and two grandchildren, all of whom were present on this occasion.

Also Mr. Cook's brother, Dr. Charles Cook of Natick, Mass. The afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by all in the friendly visit that ensued. Refreshments were served and the guests left for their respective homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Cook many returns of the anniversary day. Those present from out of town beside Dr. Cook were Mr. and Mrs. George Cook of East Hardwick and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Albany.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 2, was observed at Caspian Lake Grange as "Neighbors Night." The visiting granges were the Valley Grange from the Bend, who occupied the chairs, Caledonia Grange from East Hardwick, the members represented by its officers, the Hardwick Grange. After the regular business session the lecture of Caledonia, Mrs. Clifford, took charge and furnished the following excellent program:—Music, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eastman; recitation, Eugene Doney; reading, Mrs. Clarence Russell; recitation, E. B. Fay; song, Mrs. Clifford; recitation, George Lovejoy; reading, Mrs. Clifford. The County Agent, Mr. Wood was present and explained the scope of the Agricultural Extension Service school to be held at East Hardwick within a few weeks. The question, "Would the Farmers of the Section of Vermont Derive More Benefit by Adopting a System of Co-operative Buying and Selling?" was discussed by E. C. Goodrich, G. G. Nelson, G. W. Lovejoy and E. B. Fay. A piano solo was rendered by Mrs. A. R. Montgomery. An address was given by the Rev. Mr. Angell of West Burke.

Mr. Hutchinson spoke briefly of unity in the work. A social hour followed while refreshments of cake and coffee were served. The church dining room was beautifully decorated with potted plants. Letters from absent members were read, closing a very enjoyable meeting.

Celia Vance goes to work through vacation at H. McGill's.

Thanksgiving evening the National Musical Trio of the lecture course will be given in the congregational church, Burke Mountain, during the week.

A number of Grangers went to confer degrees upon entering members of the Sutton Grange Friday evening.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, Thanksgiving exercises will be held at the Grange hall by Burke Mountain Grange. Byron N. Clark of Burlington will give a stereoscopic lecture.

The Rev. Mr. Angell of West Burke will be at the M. E. church next Sunday morning to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Michael J. Cohen went to his home in Andover, Mass., Monday, to spend his vacation with his parents. Fred Harry W. Winslow is spending a few days with relatives in Nashua, N. H.

Mrs. Helen Brown from Sheffield is working for Mrs. Lyman Brown.

Mrs. Edward Pierce and baby returned to their home in St. Johnsbury Friday after spending a few days at her father's, Isiah Mathers.

Mrs. I. D. Bemis is in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeto were in St. Johnsbury Sunday with their son Alvah, when they had him operated on for adenoids.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Temple were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice in Egypt.

Mrs. Gates and daughter spent Sunday in Kirby with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly were in St. Johnsbury Monday to attend the funeral of George Asselin.

Mrs. Robert Magill has been visiting an uncle in Montpelier the past week.

Fred Davis shot a fine deer Monday morning in Pinkham.

Mrs. W. D. Goss from St. Johnsbury visited at Dr. Root's the past week and visited other friends in town.

Mrs. John Stafford and daughter Ava from Lyndonville were Sunday visitors at John Drown's.

Erwin Cutting spent the past week at Eli Eastman's returning to his home in St. Johnsbury Saturday afternoon.

I. D. Bemis was in St. Johnsbury a part of last week.

Clayton Cole was a Sunday visitor at his uncle's, Charles Ball.

Mrs. Mary Belden was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury Monday.

EAST BURKE

Artesian Well At Mountain View Farm—Inspection of School Work.

An artesian well has been sunk at Mountain View farm, 265 feet deep, eight inches in diameter, all the way in solid rock except the first 14 feet. Several veins of water were struck on the way down and a pumping test of nine hours showed an average flow of 35 gallons per minute without lowering the level below 38 feet from the surface. This indicates an abundant supply. A deep well pump was used with a pipe running down 145 feet. The water rises naturally to within 11 feet of the top of the ground and shows a temperature of about 53 degrees. A pumping station will be installed and the water used for the stock and various other purposes for the farm.

Open school was kept in the upper class room Thursday afternoon for inspection of improvements in the class room where statuary, pictures and maps have been put up on newly painted and paneled walls, all the way and girls are much interested in their work as is shown by daily marks, besides work in water-color and sewing. Work is being done on an extended hotbed for spring use. A bird house has been added to the lower class room. Light refreshments were served over 40 guests.

Harry W. Winslow spent Tuesday visiting schools in Lyndonville, at the Graded and Institute buildings.

School reopens Nov. 29 after two weeks' vacation. It is expected that Mr. Winslow will open a class for night school of three nights a week for the winter term.

Thursday evening was celebrated in the congregational church by music and remarks, it being the 21st birthday of the C. E. society. The Epworth League was represented by its pastor who spoke touchingly of the organization and brought greetings from the M. E. church. Mrs. Goss, a charter member, spoke of the past of the C. E. Mrs. Bessie Harris spoke of its present while Rev. F. B. Richmond gave an address on the scope of Christian Fellowship.

Mr. Hutchinson spoke briefly of unity in the work. A social hour followed while refreshments of cake and coffee were served. The church dining room was beautifully decorated with potted plants. Letters from absent members were read, closing a very enjoyable meeting.

Celia Vance goes to work through vacation at H. McGill's.

Thanksgiving evening the National Musical Trio of the lecture course will be given in the congregational church, Burke Mountain, during the week.

A number of Grangers went to confer degrees upon entering members of the Sutton Grange Friday evening.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, Thanksgiving exercises will be held at the Grange hall by Burke Mountain Grange. Byron N. Clark of Burlington will give a stereoscopic lecture.

The Rev. Mr. Angell of West Burke will be at the M. E. church next Sunday morning to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Michael J. Cohen went to his home in Andover, Mass., Monday, to spend his vacation with his parents. Fred Harry W. Winslow is spending a few days with relatives in Nashua, N. H.

Mrs. Helen Brown from Sheffield is working for Mrs. Lyman Brown.

Mrs. Edward Pierce and baby returned to their home in St. Johnsbury Friday after spending a few days at her father's, Isiah Mathers.

Mrs. I. D. Bemis is in very poor health.